

Mining in Greater Sudbury

- Municipal Boundary
- Sudbury Basin
- Host Communities

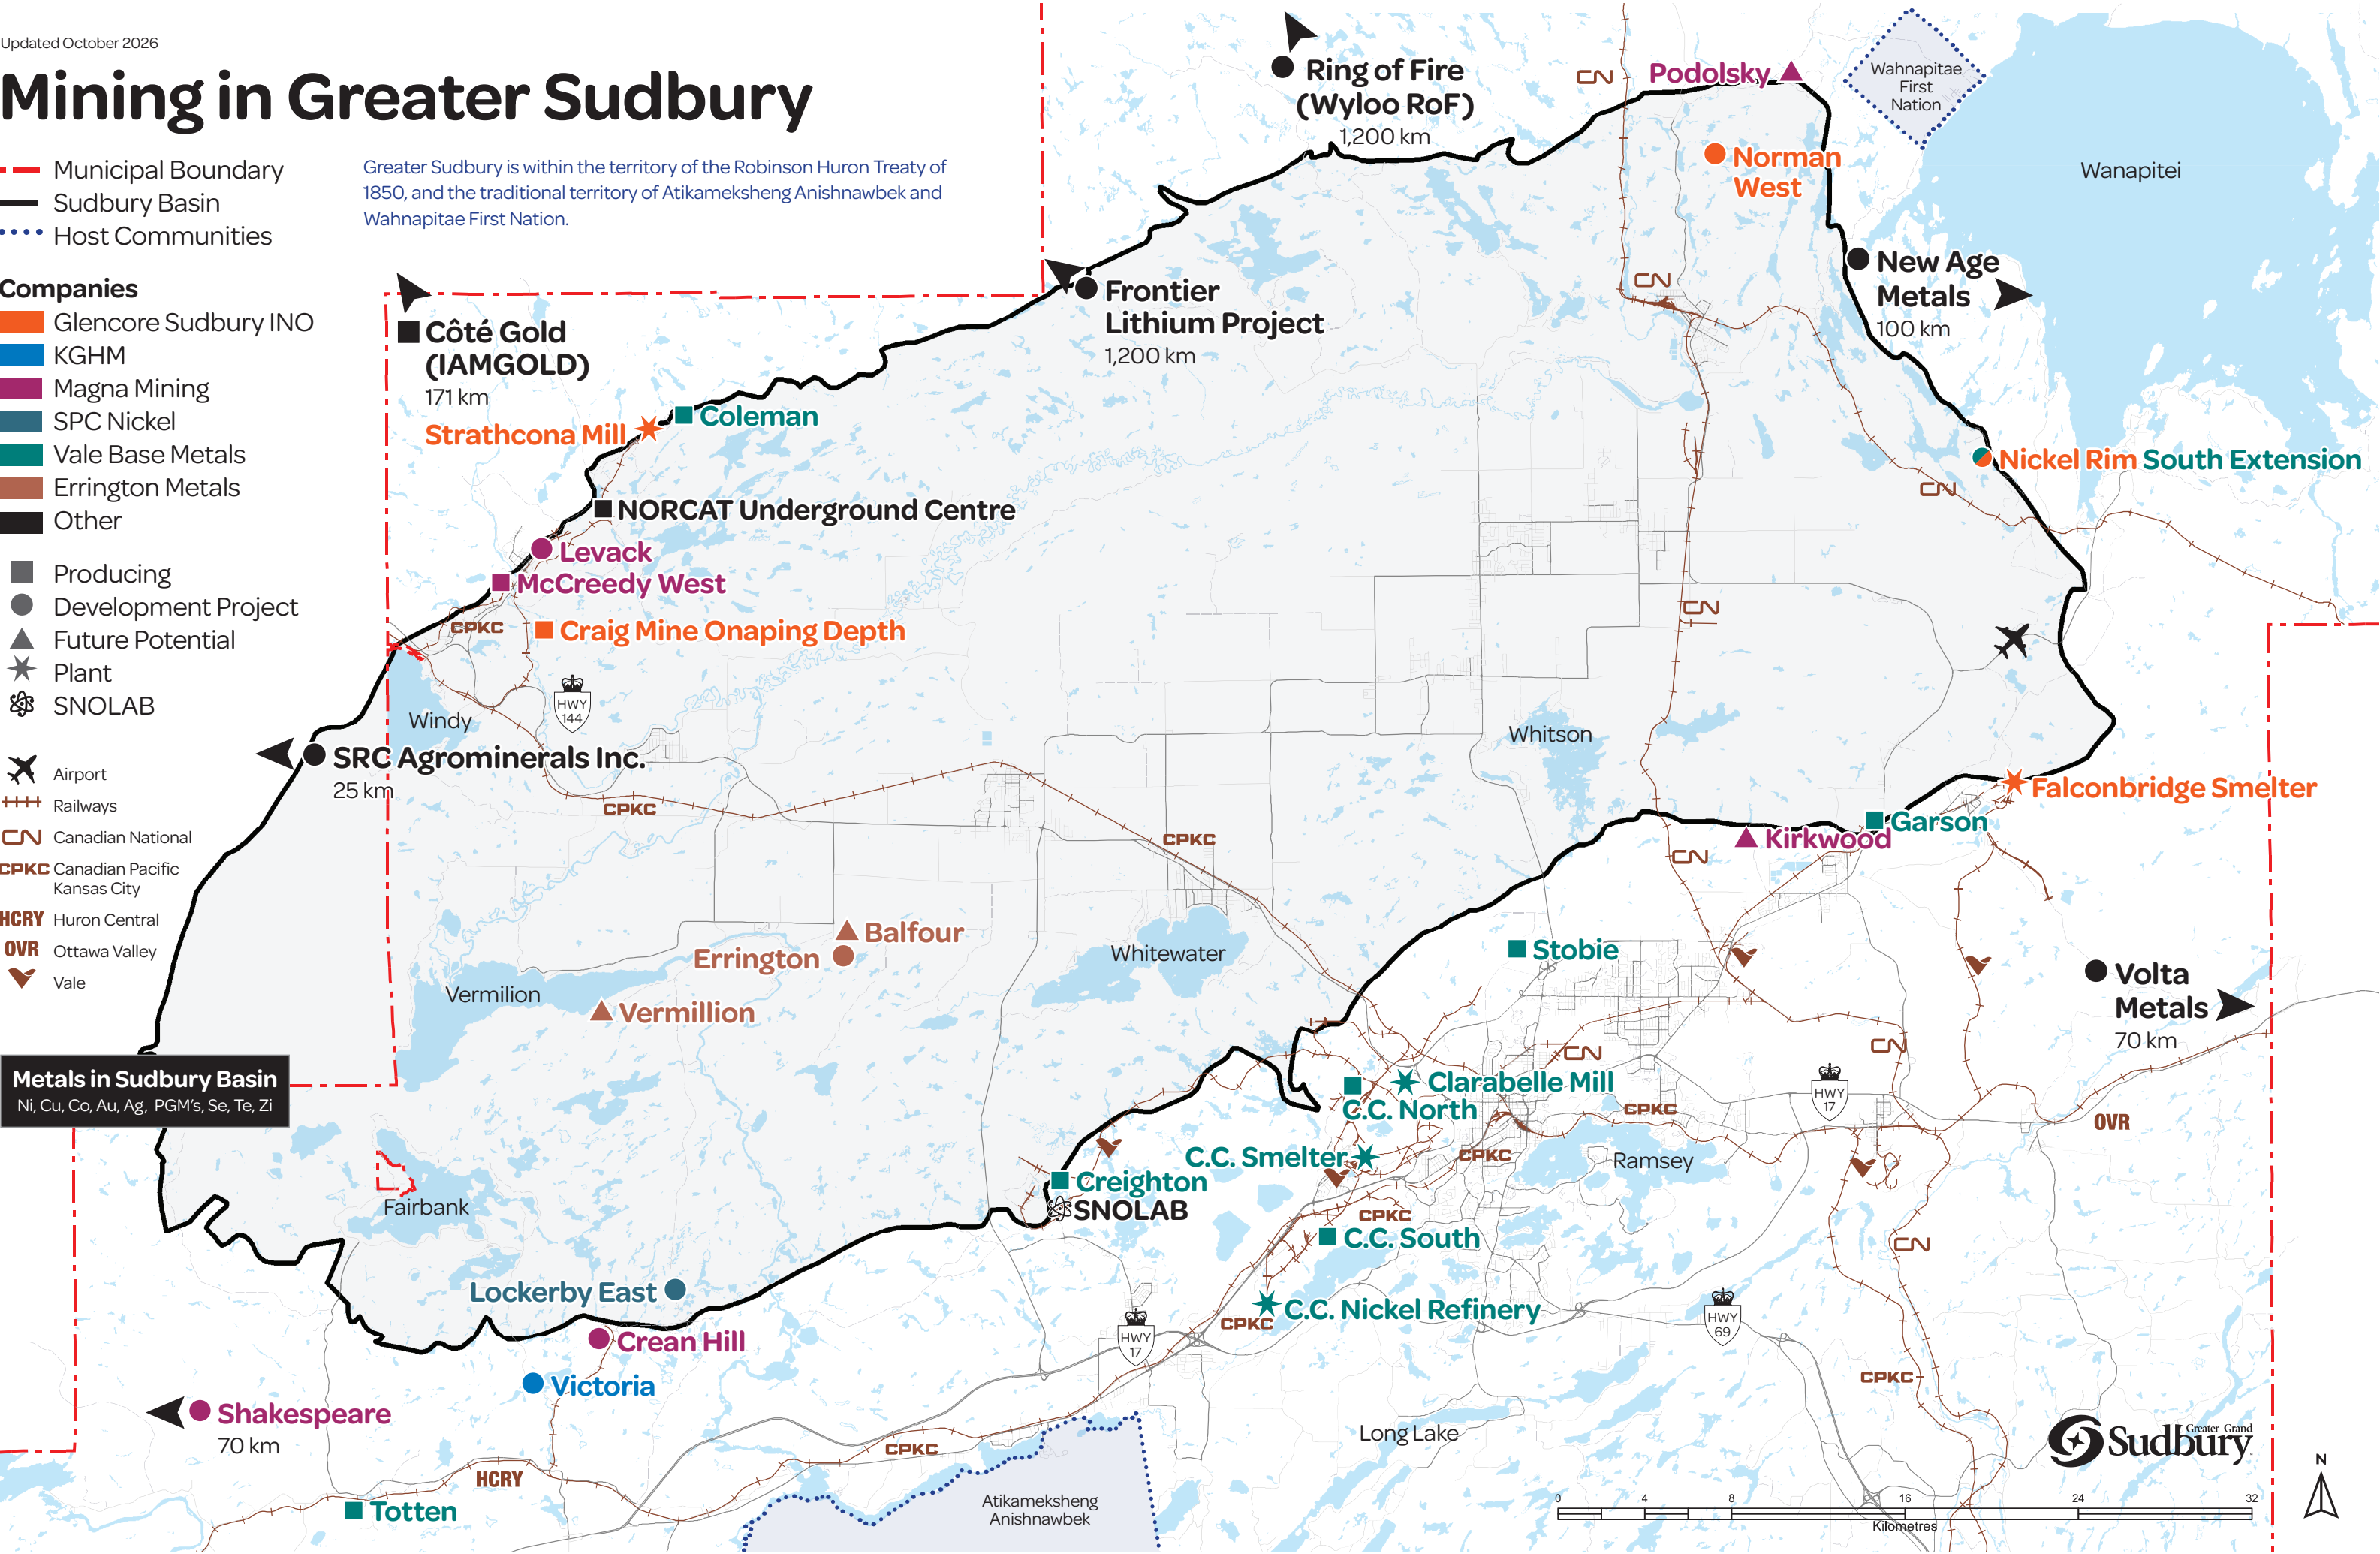

Greater Sudbury is within the territory of the Robinson Huron Treaty of 1850, and the traditional territory of Atikameksheng Anishnawbek and Wahnapiitae First Nation.

- Companies
- Glencore Sudbury INO
 - KGHM
 - Magna Mining
 - SPC Nickel
 - Vale Base Metals
 - Errington Metals
 - Other

- Producing
- Development Project
- Future Potential
- Plant
- SNOLAB

- Airport
- Railways
- Canadian National
- Canadian Pacific Kansas City
- HCRY
- Ottawa Valley
- Vale

Metals in Sudbury Basin
Ni, Cu, Co, Au, Ag, PGM's, Se, Te, Zi

Greater Sudbury at a Glance

#1 largest city by land mass in Ontario, and second largest in Canada	$56,315 4 th highest per capita GDP in Ontario	194,278 population (Stats Can 2025 Estimate)	$9.9 billion GDP 2025	330+ lakes
150+ locally owned and operated unique restaurants, shops, attractions	8 provincial parks within a 1.5 hour drive	$597.2M Construction Permit Value for 2025	#5 in Canada for Labour Market Performance (BMO, 2026)	Top 40 Research Hospital in Canada
3.5 hour drive to Toronto (HWY 69/400) or Sault Ste. Marie (HWY 17)	$506,305 average price for a single-family home	37% Bilingual	50 minute flight to Toronto	4 post-secondary schools

 300+ mining supply and service companies	 >50% gross output of Ontario mining	 14,000+ employed in mining supply and services sector	 5,500+ employed in mining and processing
 25.8+ billion kilograms of nickel produced	 28+ billion kilograms of copper produced	 1+ Trillion in ore extracted and processed	 2+ billion grams of platinum, palladium and gold produced